

Chamonix Sikora M.S., CCC-SLP, BCS-F
Speech-Language Pathologist, Board Certified Specialist in Fluency

Chamonix Sikora is an experienced specialist in the field of stuttering. She is the founder of Hope for Stuttering Speech Therapy, located in Westport, CT. Hope for Stuttering is a specialized practice devoted to helping those who stutter. Chamonix is a Board Certified Specialist in Fluency Disorders and also served on the American Board of Fluency and Fluency Disorders. She is the former executive director of the American Institute for Stuttering in NYC where she trained and worked for 9 years. Chamonix has also been an adjunct faculty member at Southern Connecticut State University, where she received her master's in speech-language pathology. She has devoted her career to the area of stuttering and has been treating clients who stutter since 2001. Her practice also provides online stuttering therapy. Chamonix has presented at conventions on the topic of stuttering and has written and co-authored several articles on fluency disorders. She has also been a guest for a variety of media outlets educating the public about stuttering including CNN, NPR, CBS Radio and others.