Bilingual Education has many noted benefits, including improved executive function, higher metalinguistic awareness, larger memory gains, as well as social and professional advantages.

Some questions we’ll explore:
What does the Bilingual Brain look like?
What are the best methods for bilingual instruction?
How do we foster proper training for bilingual educators?

For more info on the Haskins Training Institute, including past presentations and future learning opportunities, please visit:
www.haskins.yale.edu/hti
Meet the Presenters

Fred Genesee
McGill University

Elizabeth Howard
University of CT

Denise Klein
McGill University

Helen Koulidobrova
Central CT State University

Marina Pérez
Massachusetts Association of Bilingual Education

Laura Raynolds
Southern CT State University

AGENDA

8:30-9am: Sign-in and light breakfast
9:00-9:15am: Welcome and opening remarks
9:15-9:30am: Framing bilingualism; Elizabeth Howard
9:30-11:30am: Bilingualism and the Brain; Denise Klein, Helen Koulidobrova & Fred Genesee
11:30am-12:00pm: Panel Discussion/Q&A
12:00-1:00pm: Lunch (Provided)
1:00-3:15pm: Cross-Linguistic Development; Elizabeth Howard & Helen Koulidobrova
3:15-3:45pm:
Community Panel Discussion/Q&A:
Presenters, Marina Perez & Laura Raynolds

Questions and/or comments?

We are constantly striving to improve our training institute. Please remember to fill-out your feedback form and if you have further questions or suggestions, please contact Annie Stutzman